Welcome to Way2Learn

Welcome to the latest edition of the Way2Learn Prospectus and TV Guide!

Every Way2Learn course is now professionally accredited for CPD recognition, with UWE Bristol issuing a certificate of learning upon completion. This means learners earn valuable CPD points that enhance their professional development, boost employability, and make a strong impression in job interviews.

Way2Learn continues to evolve based on learner feedback, focusing on bite-sized learning and improving the accessibility of our answer books. We've expanded our course offerings with new titles designed to equip learners with essential skills—whether to impress potential employers or navigate everyday challenges.

This spring, we're excited to introduce two new courses: Job Finder and Neurodiversity in the Workplace. We've also restructured and updated all our answer books, ensuring learners have the best resources to support their studies. Additionally, our current courses have been refreshed with new, relevant content.

We hope this prospectus highlights the perfect opportunities to equip learners with the skills and knowledge they need—whether to continue their learning journey or secure employment upon release. We look forward to working with you.

Jezz Wright
Director of Content and Digital Strategy

Working in partnership with Way2Learn/PeoplePlus, to recognise these courses, is a fantastic opportunity to endorse the skills and knowledge students will achieve. This education initiative now gives UWE (Bristol) the spring-board to develop further opportunities in this space with PeoplePlus and harness the incredible learning potential within the care, justice and hard to reach educational sectors – something I very much look forward to.

Our Course Content

Video-Based Learning for the Modern Learner

At Way2Learn, video-based learning is the cornerstone of our approach, reflecting the growing trend of self-paced education in today's digital world. Our series are crafted to be accessible, engaging, and learner-focused, with carefully structured content that includes regular recaps and pauses for reflection. This approach allows you to absorb information effectively, take notes, and reflect on your progress.

To support your learning, you'll complete an answer book based on the series episodes, which is then submitted for assessment. Upon successful completion, you'll be awarded a CPD-accredited certificate and a certificate of achievement from UWE Bristol. If additional work is needed, we'll provide constructive feedback to help you meet the required standards.

The dual certification not only enhances your learning experience but also adds significant value to your professional development, ensuring you are well-equipped for future opportunities.

▶ Way2Learn: Professionally Accredited for Your Success

All Way2Learn courses have now achieved professional accreditation, having met the rigorous standards of CPD UK. This endorsement, alongside our existing recognition from the University of the West of England (UWE Bristol), ensures that our courses are of the highest quality.

You will now receive dual certification, including CPD points, which not only showcases your commitment to ongoing professional development but also significantly enhances employability across various industries.

What are CPD Points?

CPD points reflect the hours of learning you've completed, offering a clear record of your progress and achievements.

These points are valuable assets, demonstrating your commitment to continuous learning and professional development. They help you meet the standards of professional bodies, enhance your CV, and improve your competitiveness in the job market. CPD points also open doors for career advancement, including promotions and skill diversification, making them crucial for long-term success.

▶ Partnership with The University of the West of England

The University of the West of England is delighted to be working in partnership with PeoplePlus / Way2Learn TV by issuing jointly badged certificates for all courses:

Why UWE Bristol?

The University of the West of England (UWE Bristol) are focused on solving future global challenges through outstanding learning, world-leading research and a culture of enterprise.

UWE Bristol believes that it's only when you ask 'what if?' that you discover 'why not?'. That's why they're not afraid to ask difficult questions – and tackle the big issues head on. It's their way of continuing to make a real difference to the way we learn, analyse and contribute to the world we live in.

But, don't take our word for it.

Workplace Digital Skills

The Workplace Digital Skills course is designed to introduce you to the digital world, to help you in your search for work.

The digital age is expanding rapidly with new technology coming to the market every day. This in turn creates more jobs. According to latest statistics, there is a current shortage of 825,000 IT professionals, plus 90% of jobs require some form of digital competency.

No matter which job sector you are looking to work in, digital technology will be used in some shape or form.

The six units in this course will take you on a journey from how to search effectively online for jobs, identify if information you find online is relevant and accurate, keeping yourself safe from viruses and other attacks, together with ensuring your privacy is maintained, and the legal aspects of dealing with people's data, through to applying for jobs by email and using social media to develop your career prospects.
